Global Leadership Coach to CEOs & Executive Teams.

Author, Leadership Mentor, Team Coach and Top 1.5% of Global Broadcasters

As your dedicated Global Leadership Coach, I'm here to unlock your full potential and drive meaningful impact through your business. My unique blend of military and corporate experience offers a fresh perspective that resonates with top executives worldwide.

Your Path to Exceptional Leadership

Together, we will focus on your personal behaviours and future business outcomes, assisting you and your senior team in discovering and embodying your "True North." This journey will empower you to overcome challenges and make a lasting impact within your organisation. Drawing from my 20 years as an Army Officer and 25 years in business, I will share practical, pragmatic leadership tips and techniques. Our collaboration extends beyond business strategies, guiding you to enhance your health, fitness, resilience, and well-being. This holistic approach ensures you are at your best, both personally and professionally.

The Three Pillars of Our Collaboration

1. Purpose-Driven Leadership: Foster independent thinking and innovation for faster, sustainable outcomes.
2. Proven Techniques: Access a wealth of skills derived from diverse experiences and research.
3. Inspiring Leadership Process: Confront challenges head-on, enabling you to thrive in any environment.

Are you ready to become a Corporate Athlete, create space for strategic thinking, and learn world-class leadership tips from your global CEO peer group? Let's embark on this transformative journey together.

Clients regard me as a leadership authority. I am the author of Top Tips for Inspiring Leaders, The Little Book of Wisdom, and Inspiring Leadership: Leadership Lessons from My Life.

My forthcoming book, 'The CEO's Compass: Navigating Teams Through Turbulent Times,' distils insights from over 350 CEOs and their executive teams.

You will gain from my experiences as Assistant to the Head of the British Army, Chief of Staff of the Army's largest Brigade, and leader at PwC and IBM and as a PLC MD of Board and Executive Coaching. Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II awarded me the MBE for "services to leadership in training UN leaders who helped prevent the East Timor massacre."

"I was reflecting a few times this week on some of the amazing skills you've taught me and the broader team -- specifically some of the skills related to the Thinking Environment. They've had an enormously positive impact on our culture and team. So, I just wanted to say thank you to you and Leigh. The Thinking Environment is just one example of many ways that you've had a positive impact on the company and on me personally."

Matt Oppenheimer, CEO Remitly Global, (From Start-up to Unicorn FinTech Company then $9Bn IPO in 10 years)

"Jonathan - I've just been reflecting on our last coaching session and how far I have come over the two years that I have been working with you as my leadership coach. I really just wanted to say a big thank you.

You have helped teach me about what purpose really means and helped me really pursue it in my business, balancing it appropriately within our commercial mandate. You have helped me find my true leadership style and voice – one that is authentic, and I feel really comfortable and happy with. You have given me the courage to face some of my biggest problems and challenges and turned them into real successes – for my business and me.

You have taught me the power of team, delegation and trust. Finally, you have helped silence my inner critic, giving me the confidence to really reach for my true potential; beyond what I ever thought was possible."

Alison Nimmo, CEO, The Crown Estate (Took Business from £10 Bn to £13.4 Bn Revenue & +40% Profit)

"I've appreciated the insights you brought to my Executive Team for our offsite in Portugal and the way you hold the room and draw everyone out to be so open and honest and build greater trust. Consequently, I have now chosen you as my CEO Coach and also recommended you to coach another CEO I respect in a different organisation too. Thanks Jonathan."

Srini Gopalan, CEO TDG Deutsche Telekom a Euro 60M business

'Jonathan has been extremely helpful to me, personally and to my organisation. He is very personable, with a great gift for telling inspiring stories. He is a master of his subject, drawing on extensive research, thoughtfully introducing this and working with me to enhance my own skills and those of my team. Our work has helped me to gain a deeper understanding of the value I can bring to society at large as well as the organisations and institutions I work with. Many thanks indeed Jonathan'

Sir Peter Estlin, Lord Mayor of London & Formerly Group CFO, Barclays Bank (From CFO to Lord Mayor)

I am very fortunate and exceptionally grateful to have Jonathan as my coach throughout what can only be described as the most challenging year of my (and many other's) career(s) to date. Without Jonathan's extraordinary wisdom, his extensive reading and ability to reference and recommend practical examples tips and case studies for almost every eventuality, I believe my behaviour, optimism and performance would have been very different over the last 12 months. Simply put, Jonathan has been an extraordinary wing man, influencing much of my approach and ability to cope with complex and challenging business and personal situations through powerful coaching and an unmatched knowledge of readings

Rory Paterson, Vice President, Expedia (Restructure, Downsize & Promotion to VP Level)

'Jonathan is able to listen to my challenges and bring a different perspective and angle to them, deliver that in ways in which I welcome his input and makes me reflect. He always projects positive energy and an indefatigable spirit regardless of the situation, which is infectious even when I'm sure at times he may be handling tough situations. I look forward to our conversations before we have them and enjoy them afterwards, when I think back on them."

Philip Johnson, CFO Hargreaves Lansdown, Wealth Management (Restructure, Pandemic & Revenue + 25%)

"Jonathan has the special ability to help you to know yourself, to be yourself and to give you confidence to successfully pursue your goals."

Baroness Margaret Eaton, The House of Lords (Promotion from Leader of Bradford City Council – House of Lords)
